PEEL COMMON RESIDENTS ASSOCIATION - PCRA

28th January 2021

We use the personal data provided by our members to enable us to contact them about estate matters and to collect and manage member subscriptions. We do not sell personal data or use it for any marketing.

We do not share any personal information with anyone else except if this is required by law or is necessary for the prevention or detection of crime.

Historic subscription information is maintained to record each individual's contribution to the PCRA. This information is held on a computer database. Access to computer files is password protected.

We have a duty to keep personal information accurate and up to date. Please let us know of any change in your personal details (name, address, phone number, etc.). Members have the right to request a copy of the records we hold about them at any time. To ask for your information, please contact the Membership Secretary in person or by email to the address below. However, you should be aware that emails are insecure, therefore copies of personal data will not be sent to you by email but must be collected in person from the membership secretary at 38 The Parkway.

Members have a right to object to the processing of their personal data. If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information please contact us to try to resolve any concerns. You have a right to complaint to the UK Information Commissioner's Office.

We may amend this Members Privacy Policy from time to time. The current version will always be displayed on the web site www.peelcommonresidents.co.uk News / Library.
